

Colour Coating

Colour Coating Application Process

- Enables hospitals to differentiate instruments that belong to specific surgical sets and therefore aid with inventory management.
- Colour coating set pieces with professional dipping is far superior to standard taping where both sterility and longevity are compromised.
- Unique colour dipping process ensures the coating is long lasting and does not interfere with the integrity of the metal instrument or its functionality.
- Twelve different powder colour finishes will meet all unique colour combinations.

Available colours (please order by number)

